Christ Centered Approach to Multiculturalism - Holy Week is Upon Us!

In the Hispanic world, Semana Santa (Holy Week) is predominantly celebrated with processions, parades with floats, bonfires and masses. Communities in Iztapalapa (México), Cusco (Perú), Popayán (Colombia), Toledo and Sevilla (Spain) are famous for bringing the community together in their processions and re-enactments of the last moments of Christ's life and rejoicing in life and new beginnings.

One of the most creative and artistic ways to celebrate Easter in these countries, is to create a colorful carpet in the streets. In the town of Cholula, Mexico, flower petals are used to create designs on the street, forming beautiful tapestries. Guatemalans in the city of Antigua bring the community together to create similar Alfombras, made with colored sawdust and flowers.

To see pictures and read a firsthand account of a woman traveling in Guatemala open this link (highlight and right click), Antigua's Alfombras, Magic Carpets Coloured by Culture and Community | Guatemala \(re-creation.world\)

This will take you to a beautiful video showing you the making of Alfombras, carpets.
